Cruising

Explore Independence of the Seas Onboard Activities. There's no shortage of action-packed activities on Independence of the Seas. From a glow-in-the-dark laser tag showdown to a race on the Dueling waterslides, passengers can satisfy their need for adventure all day long, while cruisers looking to relax can visit the ship's full-service spa for some much-needed pampering or soak in one of 6 whirlpools, and retail therapy is always available in one of the many boutiques.

After dark, cruisers can experience the ship's active nightlife, dancing to live Latin music at Boleros or finding a new favourite wine at Vintages, the ship's exclusive wine bar. Passengers who prefer more structured entertainment should be sure to catch Broadway at Sea's production of Grease, which boasts a live orchestra. Children ages 3 to 11 can enjoy their own unique cruise experience with Royal Caribbean's award-winning Adventure Ocean program, and the ship also offers a nursery for cruisers as young as 6 months.

Wednesday 03rd September

Vigo, Spain

Docked: 9.30am - 5.30pm

The sun will shine upon you as you enter the harbour of Vigo, the largest city in Spain's autonomous Galicia region. Start your adventure by ascending the Castro Fortress — you can take in views of the city and the lushly forested mountains around it from these granite-walled 17th-century fortifications. Then, learn up about the region at one of Vigo's excellent museums: Museo do Mar Galicia features exhibits on the local oceanography and ecosystems, while the Vigo Museum of Contemporary Art hosts a changing lineup of participatory workshops and installations by innovative artists working today. Later, stretch your legs on the GR-53, a 25-mile path along the coastline and low mountain peaks around the city, or relax by the blue waters of Cies Beach.

Thursday 04th September

Lisbon, Portugal

Docked: 08.00am – 5.00pm

Lisbon is a quintessential European city, full of natural beauty, historic architecture and culinary pleasures — not to mention one of the best climates anywhere on the planet. To get to know Portugal's capital, walk between the captivating miradouros — terrace viewpoints that are scattered on the hilltops, offering stunning vistas from the sea to the castles and beyond. Watch as the light peeks through the clouds and shines down on The City of Seven Hills during your cruise to Lisbon. If you're a history buff, head to Belem or nearby Sintra to explore UNESCO World Heritage Sites like the Jeronimos Monastery and Quinta da Regalaira.

Friday 05th September

Seville (Cadiz), Spain

Docked: 11.00am – 7.00pm

As the capital of Spain's Andalusia region, the energetic city of Seville stands tall at the banks of the Guadalquivir River. And like its rich flamenco legacy, this well-preserved city performs an elaborate dance between Moorish history and youth-infused street culture. A jovial spirit and intoxicating personality flow freely throughout its narrow streets, from Old Town's palaces to the tapas bars of Santa Cruz. Admire the lavish stylings of Plaza de España from a painted ceramic bench, or stroll through Maria Luisa Park's serene greenery. Stand in Spain's oldest bullring at the Bullfighting Museum— or breathe in citywide views from the top of Torre del Oro.

Cruising

Sunday 07th September

La Coruna, Spain

Docked: 09.00am – 5.00pm

Perched on a rocky peninsula in Spain's northwest, La Coruna is brimming with ancient Roman heritage and maritime history. Head to the Crystal City, located right near the harbour, and check out the gallerias — the city is famous for these 19th-century enclosed glass balconies that reflect the glittering waters of the Atlantic. Then, walk the Paseo Maritimo: The promenade will take you past ocean views to the Citadel, the city's old town full of remnants of the ancient and medieval past. Walk along the still-standing remnants of the city's Roman Wall, and climb the green hill to the Tower of Hercules — a Roman lighthouse that's been in active use since the second century A.D.

Monday 08th September

Bilboa, Spain

Docked: 09.00 – 7.00pm

The new and the old meet head-on in Bilbao — the unofficial capital of Basque country in Spain's northwest, near southern France. Once an industrial capital, the opening of the Guggenheim in 1997 propelled Bilbao into a hub of outstanding art, architecture and gastronomy. Today, modern trams travel on historic avenues like the Siete Calles ("Seven Streets") of Casco Viejo — Bilbao's medieval quarter, which today is dotted with boutiques, bakeries and outdoor cafes. Meanwhile, futuristic buildings like the titanium-clad Guggenheim Museum and the Gran Hotel Domine hang over the Nervion river that runs through the city. There's no other city with such a polarity of scenes in Spain. Get onboard a Spain cruise and see for yourself why Bilbao is the pride and joy of Basque Country.
